

BABY THRUST IN SUIT CASE AFTER BEING SLAIN

DANCE DIP WAS TOO DIPPY

That Little Movement Had Too Much Meaning of Its Own

Still, Exclusive Club Members Enjoyed Texas Tommy and Bunny Hug

Serenely over polished floor With mellow lights aglow, Dainty feet to music sweet Glided fast, then slow. Texas Tommy, Turkey Trot, Every feature—and why not? Bunny Hug with every glide, Smothered laughter on the side, As they danced in Maple Hall At the Nightingales first ball.

Listen for a moment whilst a tale we unfold. Perhaps you have heard and perhaps not, more than likely the latter, for the "affair" was very exclusive and not more than two hundred of Oakland's young misses and matrons, together with the young men, members of the Home and Seminoles clubs, and others, too, received invitations. The police were there in gold braid and buttons. Captain Charles Beck, resident in the uniform of the law, looked in upon the scene at Maple hall last night while a dance under the auspices of the Nightingale club was going on.

It is what he saw there that was whispered about today in many circles. The telephone was brought into play early this morning by the young women, inquiring one of the other if the story had "leaked out," that is, become common talk among the population in general. Young men dropped into this and that office and business houses before noon to relish the midst laughter the events of the night before. Captain Beck continued to smile today when asked about what he saw in Maple hall.

JUST A LITTLE DIP. He did not stop the dance, but a request was made that a certain "dip" in the Texas Tommy, just a little movement without any particular meaning of its own be eliminated from the rhythmic glide.

"Slightly too bold," was the comment heard from a few present. "But that was what they were looking for," declared one of the sponsors of the occasion. "You see, it was just like this," interposed another. "There are regular dances given by the Home club, the Seminoles club and most of the other social clubs on this side of the bay. That is nothing out of the ordinary. They are somewhat too tame, however, for many of the patrons who are obliged, through social activities, to attend."

"Recently complaint has been made that the affairs were becoming 'slow' and tiresome and all of that. Suggestions were made that members of the several cotillions get together and give a dance of their own where the Texas Tommy, the Cubanola Glide and others of similar nature would not be tabooed."

PLEASED THE DANCERS. "The first dance was given in Maple hall a couple of weeks ago. Quite a number attended. Last night there were a great many more. The order of the dances seemed to strike a popular demand."

"Oh, the dances were strictly conventional," said one of the fair young women who attended. "They were just grand, though, and unique, don't you know. The other clubs forbid the Texas Tommy and the Turkey Trot."

BRIBERY IS PROBED IN SOUTH

Los Angeles Grand Jury Begins Investigation of Alleged Tampering

Eckhoff Appears Before Indianapolis Tribunal to Give Testimony

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4.—The definite statement was made today in official quarters that the county grand jury had begun an inquiry into the alleged attempts to bribe jurors in the McNamara trial. Clarence S. Darrow, formerly chief counsel for the McNamara brothers, said, however, that he had not yet been subpoenaed before the grand jury in connection with the charges that followed the arrest of Bert H. Franklin, a detective for the defense, a few days prior to the confessions of the brothers.

Job Harriman, another of the defense attorneys, also said he had not been summoned, but at the same time it was said that the renewed activity of the county inquirers in the dynamiting cases indicated to those familiar with the bribery phase of it that the county authorities were determined to obtain, if possible, the indictment of persons who had been prominently connected with the McNamara defense.

CALLS ON HARRIMAN. Darrow paid a call today upon Harriman, who, with Lecompte Davis, has been retained to defend Olaf Tveitmo, Anton Johannsen, E. A. Clancy and J. E. Munsey, the labor leaders indicted last Saturday by the federal grand jury on the charge of having conspired with the McNamaras and Orrie E. McManigal to transport dynamite from the east to California in violation of the interstate commerce laws.

The five employees of the McNamara defense, who were subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury, met here before they went to the courthouse where the grand jury assembled.

One of the first witnesses to appear at the inquisitorial chamber was Mrs. Ann Hartenstein, who formerly acted as Darrow's confidential stenographer. Miss F. Kernaghan of San Francisco, another stenographer employed for a time by the defense, was subpoenaed today. She also went early to the courthouse.

FORD IN CHARGE. Assistant District Attorney W. Joseph Ford, who filed the bribery information against Detective Bert H. Franklin in the superior court, took charge of the investigation before the grand jury. All doubt that the investigation would center for a time at least about the alleged attempts at jury bribing were removed when W. H. Leutz, auditor of the First National Bank, appeared before the grand jury in answer to a subpoena.

The finances for the McNamara defense were kept in this bank, and officials of the district attorney's office declared it was their intention to ascertain, if possible, who paid out the money which, it is charged, Bert Franklin sought to bribe George N. Lockwood, a witness in the McNamara case, and did bribe Robert F. Bain, a juror who had been sworn to try the confessed dynamiter and murderer.

J. H. Russell, Darrow's former private secretary, was the first witness called before the inquisitorial chamber in the chamber until the recess for lunch.

Detective Samuel L. Browne, of the county district attorney's office, said he expected to hear of the arrival in Indianapolis today of Orrie E. McManigal to become a federal witness there. McManigal was taken from the county jail here last Saturday night and his whereabouts kept secret until the following night, when, in the custody of detectives, he began the trip east, according to statements of Los Angeles county officials.

ECKHOFF APPEARS. INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—Frank Eckhoff of Cincinnati, intimate friend of John J. McNamara for years, appeared today at the federal grand jury chamber. R. H. Johnson, manager of the street railway lines at Peoria, Ill., also came in answer to a subpoena, and both men are assumed to have related details of various dynamite explosions now being investigated by the government.

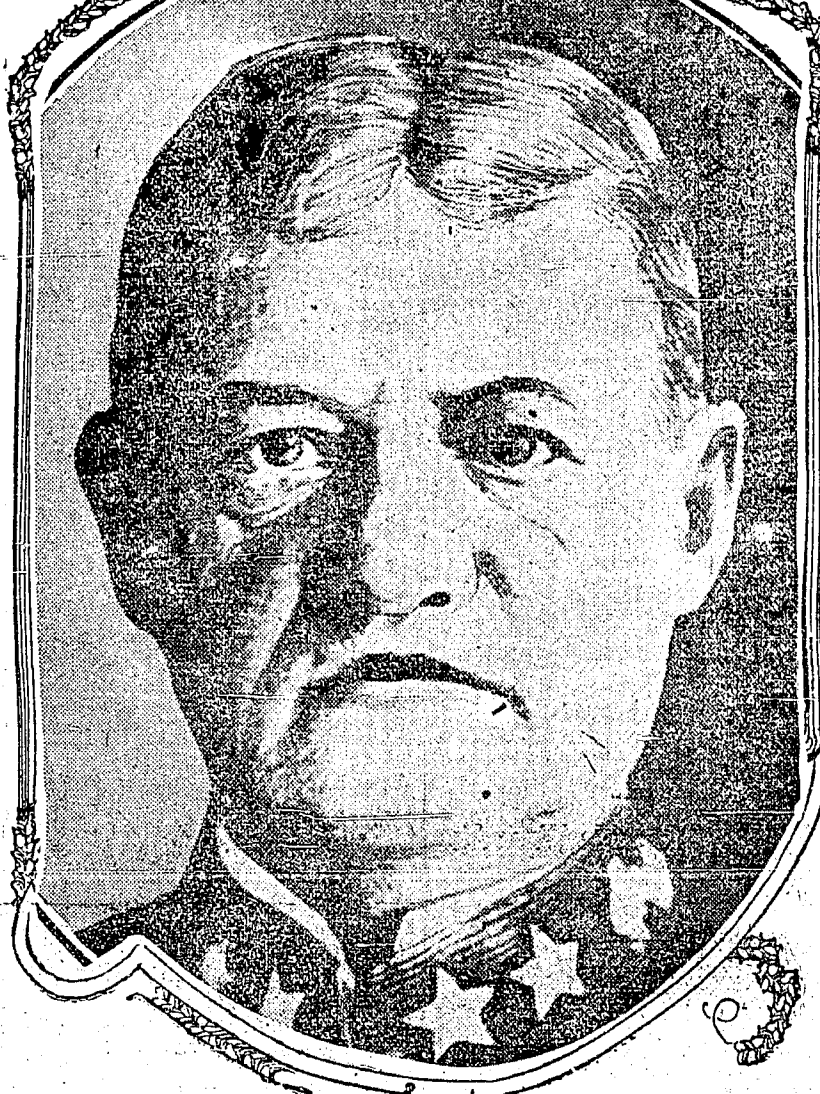

District Attorney John D. Fredericks of Los Angeles county, said today he expected the California evidence in the alleged conspiracy to reach here tomorrow. It is said to relate chiefly to the trip confessedly made by Orrie E. McManigal from Indianapolis to Los Angeles, at the direction of John J. McNamara to blow up the Livellyn from Works. McManigal is enroute here in charge of detectives and is expected to arrive tomorrow to affirm his former confessions.

Fredericks announced that he had

Taft Will Not Recognize Attacks on Col. Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Word was sent broadcast today to supporters of President Taft that under no circumstances would the President countenance attacks on President Roosevelt, no matter what the ultimate intention of Roosevelt, in regard to the Republican presidential nomination might be. It was said that the President has expressed himself as being at a loss to account for reports that relations between him and Colonel Roosevelt were seriously strained. He has not taken opportunity to reply directly to any utterances of Colonel Roosevelt that had been interpreted in some quarters as attacks on the policy of the administration and it is said he does not wish his friends to go any further than he has.

INFANT IS CHOKED TO DEATH

Remains of Murdered Child Discovered in Storage Room in Ferry Depot

Old Grip Remains Checked for a Month Before Contents Are Discovered

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Carefully wrapped in a newspaper and locked in a cheap suitcase, the body of a baby girl was found in the check-room of Foster and O'Rear's newsstand at the Southern Pacific station in San Francisco, the body was discovered after 7 o'clock this morning. According to Autopsy Surgeon Macnos, the body was strangled to death by a cord being tied about its neck. The detective department has begun an investigation in hopes of discovering the slayer.

The quest, however, will be a difficult one, as the grip was checked on December 5, 1911, and a month, all but two days, has elapsed.

The gruesome find was made by Henry Metzger, an employee of the news company, who, after a search of the satchels and packages this morning, unearthed a brown imitation leather case of exceedingly cheap make, and breaking it open was horrified to discover the babe's body. A San Francisco newspaper of November 18 had been wrapped around it, but there was no clothing and no clew which would serve to trace the parents. It is evident that the disposal of the infant was carefully planned and the suitcase was taken to be checked. It remained on the shelf and little was thought of it until yesterday an odor was detected, and this, finally led to the discovery of the remains.

Detective Sergeant James McGowan has been set on the case and will aid the coroner's deputies in an investigation.

The sheriff and a posse followed the fugitive in an automobile. When they came up with him several shots were fired and Chinciel tried to climb a barbed wire fence. The barbs caught his clothing and held him until the officers reached his side. Webb was shot in the left lung and his recovery is said to be doubtful.

Culprits Give Their Version of Affair

The explosive had been taken from a box which had been buried by a railroad section gang. The young men said they had intended to place the dynamite in a field and fire at it with shotguns.

CHARGES WIDOWER WITH GRAVE CRIME

Leopoldine Moser Declares She Was Inveigled Into Mock Marriage.

Calling at the office of the county clerk this morning, Leopoldine Moser, a comely and well dressed Austrian woman about 26 years old, forged the first link in a chain of evidence she is working up against Robert Scheive, a San Francisco resident, with the children in the hope of landing him in the penitentiary on a statutory charge and one of robbing her of about $400, representing all of her savings from earnings as a waitress. Miss Moser claims that with her money as his object, Scheive took advantage of her inexperience of the laws of the state governing marriage and after accomplishing his purpose, decamped to parts unknown with her money and his children.

Miss Moser believed that she was Scheive's wife until one day while recounting her troubles to a friend she related the transactions between herself and Scheive at the time the license to wed was secured. Then it developed that although she believed that she was the wife of Scheive she was never married to him. She told Deputy Cunha that Scheive had convinced her that all that was necessary in California to consummate marriage was to secure the license, this permit automatically sealing the marital contract.

Miss Moser secured from Deputy Cunha a certificate to the effect that he issued the license to her and Scheive and a similar statement from County Recorder Bacon that no return of the marriage has ever been made to his office by any clergyman or magistrate authorized under the law to perform a marriage ceremony.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

ELLSWORTH ON CRIMINAL BENCH

Judges in Superior Court Are Assigned to Positions for Coming Year.

Sitting en banc at noon today in department two of the Superior Court the judges of that tribunal entered an order which assigns the judiciary for the present year as follows:

Judge T. W. Harris to Department 1.
Judge William H. Waste, to Department 2.
Judge Frank S. Wells to Department 3.
Judge William B. Ogden to Department 4 (probate).
Judge John Ellsworth to Department 5 (criminal).
Judge Everett J. Brown to Department 6.

Judge Ellsworth exchanges benches with Judge Wells and Judge Ogden with Judge Brown. All of the other judges remain in their old assignments. It was agreed at the session that the judges whose status is changed by the order shall wind up litigation that is pending before them before transferring to their new assignment. This will be accomplished in both instances within a day or two, it is calculated.

Many years have passed since Judge Ellsworth sat permanently in the criminal department and the exchange with Judge Wells, it is believed, will give the venerable jurist merited release from the hard work of administering civil law, which has been his lot for more than a decade.

The conduct of the juvenile court falls to the lot of the jurist sitting in the probate department, so that Judge Ogden will preside there during the year. The auxiliary department will be in charge of visiting judges who will be invited to sit from time to time in accordance with the plan adopted by the local judiciary when this branch of the Superior Court was organized by the legislature about three years ago.

FAMOUS PAINTING INVOLVED IN TANGLE

Government May Confiscate Picture of Three Millions in Gold and Notes.

The government may confiscate a famous oil painting, once the property of the late Colonel Ernest Haquette, for many years proprietor of the Palace of Art in Post street, San Francisco, before the fire. The picture represents three millions in gold and bank notes, packed in barrels to overflowing. The law of the United States prohibits pictures or copies being made of currency or coin. The painting has been exhibited in the picture windows of the First National Bank of Oakland.

Colonel Haquette secured a permit from former Secretary of the Treasury Shaw which allowed him to keep the picture in his possession, with the proviso that it should not be placed on exhibition, beyond showing it to friends in the cafe.

Secret Service Agent Henry Moffitt explained to the bank officials about a week ago that it was unlawful to exhibit the picture. He did not seize the picture when the bank officials explained they had the necessary permit to show the picture. Upon inspection the permit proved to be the old one Haquette had secured. The authorities at Washington were at once notified and Moffitt is awaiting instructions.

NASH ON TRIAL BEFORE DUNNE

The Cashier of Defunct Market Street Bank Called to Bar.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—W. D. Nash, cashier of the defunct Market Street Bank, was placed on trial before Superior Judge Dunne this morning for alleged misrepresentation of the paid-up capital of the corporation to the bank examiner on August 28, 1908. George Kling, expert accountant, who had been employed by the district attorney to examine the books of the institution, declared that the report had been made to the bank examiner that there was $102,245 paid in capital, whereas, in fact, there was only $58,000 on hand.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Marie Frances Farnham, well known here, who died three months ago in New York, left her entire $20,000 estate to a friend, Regina Augusta Evans, according to a will filed in Judge Graham's court today. It is said that the will cuts off two nieces of the decedent.

ACCUSED MEN PLACED ON TRIAL

Connors, Maple and Bender Called Into Court in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—Bert H. Connors, A. P. Maple and F. Ira Bender, the union men indicted on the charge of having attempted to blow up the County Hall of Records a few weeks prior to the explosion which wrecked the Times building, were called for trial today before Judge Willis in the criminal department of the superior court.

Clarence Darrow, formerly chief counsel for the McNamaras, who had also been retained to defend the prisoners in the Hall of Records case, said before the men were brought into court that he was out of it, and H. H. Appel was made attorney of record, with LeCompte Davis in Darrow's place. The three prisoners asked for separate trials and Connors was selected to go to trial first.

When this formality was accomplished Davis moved to withdraw Connors' former plea of not guilty and submit a demurrer to the indictment on the ground that it did not state specifically the offense charged to the prisoner.

ANSWERS NOT GUILTY. Judge Willis overruled the motion. Connors was ordered to plead again. He answered: "Not guilty." And Davis and Assistant District Attorney G. Ray Horton, who represents the state, proceeded to examine witnesses summoned for jury service.

The McNamara trial, coupled with the dynamite conspiracy investigations which have occurred, courts and grand juries for a year have produced such a widespread impression upon the public that attorneys for both sides said they expected some delay in procuring a jury. Nearly all the veniremen examined this morning said they had been more or less biased or prejudiced by the sensational developments that attended the trial of James B. McNamara and the confessions of the two McNamara brothers.

RENUMBERING IS NEAR COMPLETION

Entire City Will Be Systematically Numbered Within a Short Time.

Under the direction of Commissioner of Streets W. J. Eacus the renumbering of the residences and places of business is nearing completion, and within a short time the entire city will be numbered according to a systematic plan of the most comprehensive nature. The work was authorized by an ordinance passed about a year ago.

There was an ordinance passed to renumber the entire city by the former city council, and on account of the lack of funds the action on same was delayed until by the request of numerous people, particularly the postoffice authorities, the city directory companies and the Merchants' Exchange and others, the city council appropriated $1500 to be used for that purpose. The work is now being rushed to completion. Up to date all of East Oakland has been renumbered. The streets running north and south from Fallon to Myrtle streets, north to Thirty-sixth street, have been renumbered, and the work will proceed in the same manner to the bay. Streets running east and west from the lake westerly, north to Thirty-sixth street, are practically correct.

There will be but few changes. Where there are irregular numbers or half numbers, changes will be made. The streets north of Thirty-sixth street from Broadway westerly, which was part of the annex of 1897, are practically correct, because shortly after the said annexation they numbered with 3500 beginning with Thirty-sixth street. Changes will only be made where there are irregular or half numbers. The radical changes will be on streets running north and south, such as Market street, where today we have 600 at First street, which will be changed to 100 and running to 2251 at Thirty-fifth street, which will be the 3500 block. Fourteenth street is one of the highest numbered streets in the United States, taking the number of 10900 at One Hundred and Ninth avenue.

FATALLY CRUSHED BY STREET CAR

George Gilmore Falls Beneath Wheels While Trying to Board Vehicle.

George Gilmore, a Western Pacific employee, residing at 1002 East Twenty-third street, was fatally injured about 1:15 this afternoon while trying to board a west-bound electric car at Twenty-first street and Nineteenth avenue. Gilmore carried a bundle in his arm and signaled to the car to stop. Before it came to a standstill he grabbed a stanchion of the front section and attempted to swing himself aboard. He lost his hold and fell backwards. His legs shot forward between the fender and the front wheels, the car stalling as the wheels rested on his body. Gilmore was horribly crushed about the hips and his right arm was broken in several places. Detective McSorley was a passenger on the car and immediately telephoned to the general offices of the Oakland Traction company for a wreck crew when it was found that Gilmore could not be extracted from under the wheels.

Superintendent J. P. Potter hurried to the scene of the accident in his automobile and after directing the release of the injured man had Gilmore placed in his automobile and rushed to the receiving hospital, where Dr. George G. Reine examined the case and pronounced it hopeless. He said that Gilmore could not possibly live more than two or three hours.

NAMES AFFINITY IN DIVORCE SUIT

Husband Says He and Three Others Surprised Wife and Companion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—A divorce action filed secretly this morning by M. Lichtenstein against Anita Fider Lichtenstein. The husband is associated in the firm of M. R. Lichtenstein Sons Company, stock brokers, 39 Montgomery street, and his wife was a prominent belle in the smart set here prior to her marriage on March 2, 1908, at the old Beichmann Hotel on Sutter street. The complaint is sensational in the extreme and names an affinity. E. Joseph, a wealthy business man of New York, the chief episode mentioned by Lichtenstein is alleged to have occurred on December 28 last in the Bay State Hotel, when the plaintiff, his brother and two detectives are said to have surprised Mrs. Lichtenstein in Joseph's company.

JESSE W. BRYAN KILLED BY AUTO

San Francisco Attorney and Politician Dies Quickly of His Injuries.

Jesse W. Bryan, a local attorney and prominent figure in Democratic circles, was run down by a light automobile on Market street in front of the Crocker building last evening and died in a few minutes later at the Harbor Emergency hospital. The wheels of the machine passed over his body, but left no visible traces of bruises, and it is not known whether death was due to internal injuries or heart failure.

Bryan was crossing Market street from the Palace hotel at 4:45 o'clock. Just after crossing the car tracks he saw the run-about of General-manager R. J. Huntington of the Otis Elevator company driven by Louis H. Watson, within a few feet of him.

In confusion he stepped back and fell, and the machine, which Watson had veered out to pass behind Bryan, struck his body. It was going at a slow rate of speed and two of the side wheels passed over Bryan's stomach.

He was picked up and placed in the machine by Corporal Charles Goff and Traffic Patrolman Edward Wiskotchill, and hurried to the Harbor hospital. He retained consciousness and asked for his physician, Dr. J. Wilson Shields. He died fifteen minutes later. Dr. W. A. Sampson of the Harbor hospital said that an external examination was unable to show whether death was due to heart failure or injuries.

FATHER DIED RECENTLY.

A pathetic part of Bryan's sudden death was the fact that his lately widowed mother was at home at 2614 Laguna street waiting for his return, and though informed of the accident was kept in ignorance of his death for several hours as it was feared that the knowledge of her second loss would prove fatal to her. Her husband died on October 21.

The only other member of the family is an older brother John, who lives on a ranch near Hollister. Word was immediately sent to him and it is expected that he will arrive here today.

Bryan was 37 years of age and unmarried. He was educated at Santa Clara college, and was at one time District Attorney of Monterey county. His father was W. J. Bryan, former postmaster of the United States at Cleveland, Ohio. For many years the elder Bryan conducted a drug store under the old Grand hotel at the corner of New Montgomery and Market streets, and it was within a short distance of the place that he met his death.

Goff placed Watson under arrest and charged him with manslaughter. He was released on $100 bail, the release being signed by Police Judge J. J. Sullivan.

"I was driving the machine at very slow speed, owing to the crossing," said Watson at the city prison after his arrest. "When I was directly in front of the safety station I saw the figure of a man step from behind the lamp post. I quickly threw on my brakes but before I could bring the car to a standstill the man had fallen backward directly in front of its path. Only the front wheels of the machine passed over his body, the car having been brought to a stop before the rear wheels reached him. I only thought him slightly injured when I lifted him into the car, and was greatly surprised to learn that he had died from his injuries."

'RAG' DANCE COMES IN FOR RAGGING

San Jose Society Upset Over Criticism of Matrons and Clergymen.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 4.—The dancing by debutantes of the "Texas Tommy," the "Grizzly Bear," the "Bunny Hug" and the "Turkey Trot" at the dance of the exclusive San Jose Cotillon Club that was held last Saturday at the Vendome hotel has led to a protest that has been followed by many unlooked for circumstances.

Haughty matrons who withdrew from the Vendome with their daughters arched their eyebrows when they learned that the protest voiced against these devotees of the sensuous Apache dance had opened up a controversy in which some of the most exclusive members of the younger set have arrayed themselves against clergymen and others in San Jose who are opposed to this style of dancing.

Mrs. Carmel Byron, sister of Mrs. George A. Miller, pastor of the First Methodist church, and the Rev. Balsey Weirlein, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church, are among the clergymen who have expressed themselves forcibly against having debutantes "ragging" at cotillions.

At the dance at the Vendome last Saturday one of the most beautiful of the many society girls who were present introduced the "ragging" step with her fiancé.

In a moment a score or more couples were following their example, and horrified mothers followed to their debutante daughters and immediately withdrew.

Discussing the dance today, Mrs. E. G. Singletary, who is a member of the cotillon, said: "I was not at the Vendome at the last cotillon. I have seen the 'Bunny Hug' and the 'Grizzly Bear' danced, but not in the ball room. From what I have seen of these dances I do not consider they are good taste and they have not my approval."

"THEY ARE IMMENSE."

"I am not at all against either the 'Texas Tommy' or the 'Turkey Trot' or any of the similar dances that have been introduced recently," she said. "I think, on the other hand, that they are immense."

Mrs. George W. Rutherford, wife of a San Francisco banker, who lives in San Jose, said: "I have seen these dances, and I do not find anything pretty about them. I consider the two-step and waltz far more beautiful, and I do not think young people should be encouraged to dance the new steps. I cannot find any legitimate reason why there should be such a craze about the 'Turkey Trot'."

ORPHEUM ROAD SHOW COMING NEXT SUNDAY

MISS RAY SAMUELS.

Each year the Orpheum theater presents, during the month of January what it is pleased to call "The Great Orpheum Road Show." The show included ordinarily the choicest hits that General-manager Martin Beck is able to get together for a vaudeville performance under the special banner of the Orpheum company.

Beck organized this show a dozen years ago. It always enjoyed extraordinary prosperity and naturally his idea has been widely imitated. The Orpheum road show, however, remains in a class by itself and the public which is always quick to find out real worth, has invariably packed the theater to the doors when the Orpheum road show was announced to appear.

The Orpheum road show will open at the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday. The list of its features is an impressive one. There will be a magnificent "girl" act from London consisting of the eight Palace girls, who come direct from the Palace theater in London. From Paris has come Simone De Beryl, known as the greatest Parisian beauty of the age. Her photographs reveal her as a remarkable attractive girl. A very successful dramatic sketch entitled "Honor Among Thieves" will be the dramatic bit of the road show.

In the matter of comedy the show will be found to have unusual strength. Ray Samuels, a sensational success among ragtime singers, is expected to make an extraordinary hit. Keller Mack and Frank Orth will have a very amusing comedy sketch. Loughlin's comedy dogs will be a feature.

Felix and Cairo will give imitations. Monroe Hopkins and Lola Axtell will offer a tink which they style a thinking travesty entitled "Traveling." There will be other features included in the show, which altogether has the look of being about the best vaudeville stuff ever put together on a single bill by Mr. Martin Beck.

Helen Grantley and her company will close on Saturday night as will also Puck and Lewis, the Esmeralda and Veola girls; Abbott and White, society entertainers; Cunningham and Marion, the acrobats; Dave Genaro and Bailey dancers, and in fact all the acts on this week's bill.

FORGERY CONFESSED BY FATHER AND SON

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 4.—H. M. Dearing, cashier of the Albion National bank, which was closed Tuesday, and his son, Palmer M. Dearing, secretary and treasurer of the Cook Manufacturing Company, who were arrested late yesterday at Detroit and brought here for a hearing before United States Commissioner Clark, have pleaded guilty to charges of embezzlement and forgery. They were bound over to the Detroit grand jury and bonds were placed at $25,000 each.

Both men signed full confessions. They told how they obtained $50,000 from the bank by notes to which they forged either fictitious names or names of wealthy farmers living near Albion.

In addition to this they admitted that forged documents signed by the Cook Manufacturing Company, of which the older Dearing was president and the son secretary-treasurer, would bring the amount to $144,000.

1000 MILES OF WIRE.

FRESNO, Jan. 4.—One thousand miles of new power lines since the first of January, 1911, will be completed by the San Joaquin Light and Power company within the next fifteen days, according to an announcement that was made by A. G. Wishon, general manager of the company. These lines not only include power lines, but connections made with substations and distributing lines sent out in various parts of the valley.

Removes Hairs and Whitens Skin

(Fashion Monthly.)

It is not longer necessary for those afflicted with superfluous hairs to use the painful electric needle, for a simple powder known to druggists as delatone, the discovery of a Russian chemist, it is said, quickly and permanently removes hairy or downy growths from any part of the body without the least injury to the skin.

A little delatone is mixed with water and spread on the hairy surface, then after two or three minutes it is rubbed off, the skin washed and the hairs are gone. Aside from removing hairs, delatone leaves the skin soft and white. While genuine delatone is a little expensive, an ounce is ample and well worth its cost.

WOULD PAY ONLY FOR REAL SERVICE

Second Assistant Postmaster-General Makes Annual Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A feature of the annual report of Joseph S. Stewart, second assistant postmaster general, made public yesterday, is a recommendation that the government pay only for what it receives in the transportation of the mails.

An elaborate discussion of the proposed plan of Postmaster-General Hitchcock to pay the railroads for actual service performed is presented. This plan, it is urged, "would eliminate all distinction between payment for weight and payment for space and would be based on the space occupied by the mails in transit and the haul of the same."

The plan would enable the government to transport the mails at the rate of 6 per cent above the cost to the roads, the interstate commerce commission to have authority to resolve any differences that might arise between the railroads and the postoffice department as to an equitable adjustment.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1911, the expenditures of the second assistant's bureau aggregated $81,042,209. The appropriations for the current fiscal year amount to $87,922,580, all of which probably will not be expended because of economies that have been introduced.

PASADENA COUNCIL MEN DEFY U. S. GOVERNMENT

PASADENA, Jan. 4.—The city council yesterday really turned down a modest request made by the government of the United States and there are intimations that the Washington authorities may be heard from further. All the federal government wanted was permission to suspend a small sign over the sidewalk on Raymond avenue for the sole benefit of the public, indicating the location of the postoffice. The office is so situated that many persons, particularly tourists, have difficulty in finding it, and the postoffice department wanted to remedy the trouble.

"It is against the ordinance, therefore we must respectfully decline," was the verdict of the entire council.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A rousing cheer greeted Sylvester Clark Smith when he took the oath as representative of the Eighth California district in the Sixty-second Congress at noon yesterday, entering upon his fourth term.

ROCKLIN CUT-OFF IS USED FOR FIRST TIME

AUBURN, Jan. 4.—The first train over the Rocklin-Coffax cut-off was a special sent east yesterday over those portions of the new road between Bowman and Coffax. The remaining eight miles of the road are not yet completed, but will be ready for traffic next spring, and the Southern Pacific will then have a double-track system practically all the way from San Francisco bay to Sparks, Nevada. The cut-off is scarcely any shorter than the present line, but its grades and curves are easier, so it will be used for east-bound traffic, while the west-bound will continue over the present route.

The Hearst Banquet and California Spirit.

The banquet given in honor of William R. Hearst by the managers of the Panama-Pacific Exposition was a well deserved compliment. It was a formal recognition of the great service Mr. Hearst rendered in getting Congress to locate the Exposition at San Francisco, but that formal recognition was not necessary to inform the people of California as to what Mr. Hearst had done. The banquet was such a testimonial as had been given others who had rendered important service to the Exposition enterprise, and in this instance happens to have been more richly deserved than in most of the cases.

Mr. Hearst rendered more effective service in inducing Congress to act favorably to San Francisco than any other man—President Taft alone excepted. He organized a special bureau in Washington which cost him thousands of dollars, and enlisted support where the San Francisco committee encountered only opposition. His powerful newspapers and the potential connections they gave him in New York, Chicago and Boston were employed to the uttermost in aid of San Francisco. Every member of the staff of each of his newspapers became an ardent worker in behalf of California.

Mr. Hearst himself dropped all other matters and went to Washington to help his native city. If any man desires to know how effective that help was, how heartening it was to the committee and how stimulating it was to the other workers for California, let him ask the leaders of the San Francisco delegation. They know what Mr. Hearst did. They appreciate the great service he rendered—a service that did not cost the committee a cent directly or indirectly.

That is why the banquet given Mr. Hearst at the Palace Hotel was a graceful way of expressing thanks. It was a compliment as everyone knew—nothing more—but it was a compliment that honored the men who paid it more than the recipient. It was all the Exposition managers could do to testify their appreciation of what Mr. Hearst had done. It was in the ordinary course of procedure, to have failed in this recognition would have been obviously invidious.

A neglect in this instance would have been equivalent to an intent to slight. Mr. Hearst does not care about flouts—he has laughed at, scorned and defied them all his life—but what about trying to slight a man who did for the Exposition enterprise more than any man in San Francisco, a man who is still capable of rendering it valuable assistance, and who is striving every day through his chain of great newspapers to make it a wonderful success? The Exposition managers are gentlemen, and they will find that being gentlemen is the wisest and best policy. THE TRIBUNE compliments them on the compliment they paid themselves. They did something they ought to have done handsomely, and handsome is that handsome does. The gathering was notable for its good humor and get-together spirit, the loyalty displayed for San Francisco and California and the desire to do something to make the Exposition a success. Mr. Hearst's remarks were expressive of this spirit of comradeship in loyalty to California. Let us hope we will hear more of that sort of talk and less of fault-finding and envious carping.

The whiner is even more intractable and offensive than the kicker, but the voice of the whiner and kicker alike was lacking at the Hearst banquet. The spirit of optimism, of energy, hope and progress pervaded that assemblage, and with it was a hearty kindness, which was never better expressed than by Sir Alexander Leslie to his Scotch regiments at Stralsund: "Shoulder to shoulder, lads; down pikes! charge!"

William J. Bryan is very specific and direct in stating his political intentions. He says he can imagine a set of circumstances in which he would again become a Presidential candidate. There is nothing equivocal about that. It is a straight-cut declaration that tells everybody precisely what Mr. Bryan means. It is a pity that public men generally are not as candid. Colonel Roosevelt, for instance, could settle a question of large doubt in the minds of the American people by emulating the forthright candor of William J. Bryan.

An Excellent Character Sketch.

As to the propriety of the remarks Governor Osburn of Michigan made to a gathering to which he had been asked to introduce Senator La Follette, it is not necessary to speak. What Governor Osburn said was in wretched taste, but there was much truth in it for all that. Said the Governor:

"The Senator La Follette style of campaign tends to arouse the passions and make for a condition of public intolerance which is always worse than personal or individual intolerance because it has so much more force.

"In Senator La Follette's speeches and writings—and in this connection let me say that I have taken and enjoyed 'La Follette's Weekly' and I am a subscriber to it—I do not think he distinguishes between honest men in big business and dishonest men.

"We have got to have big business in this country if we are to compete in the manufactures and transactions of the world. But big business should not be permitted to oppress the people."

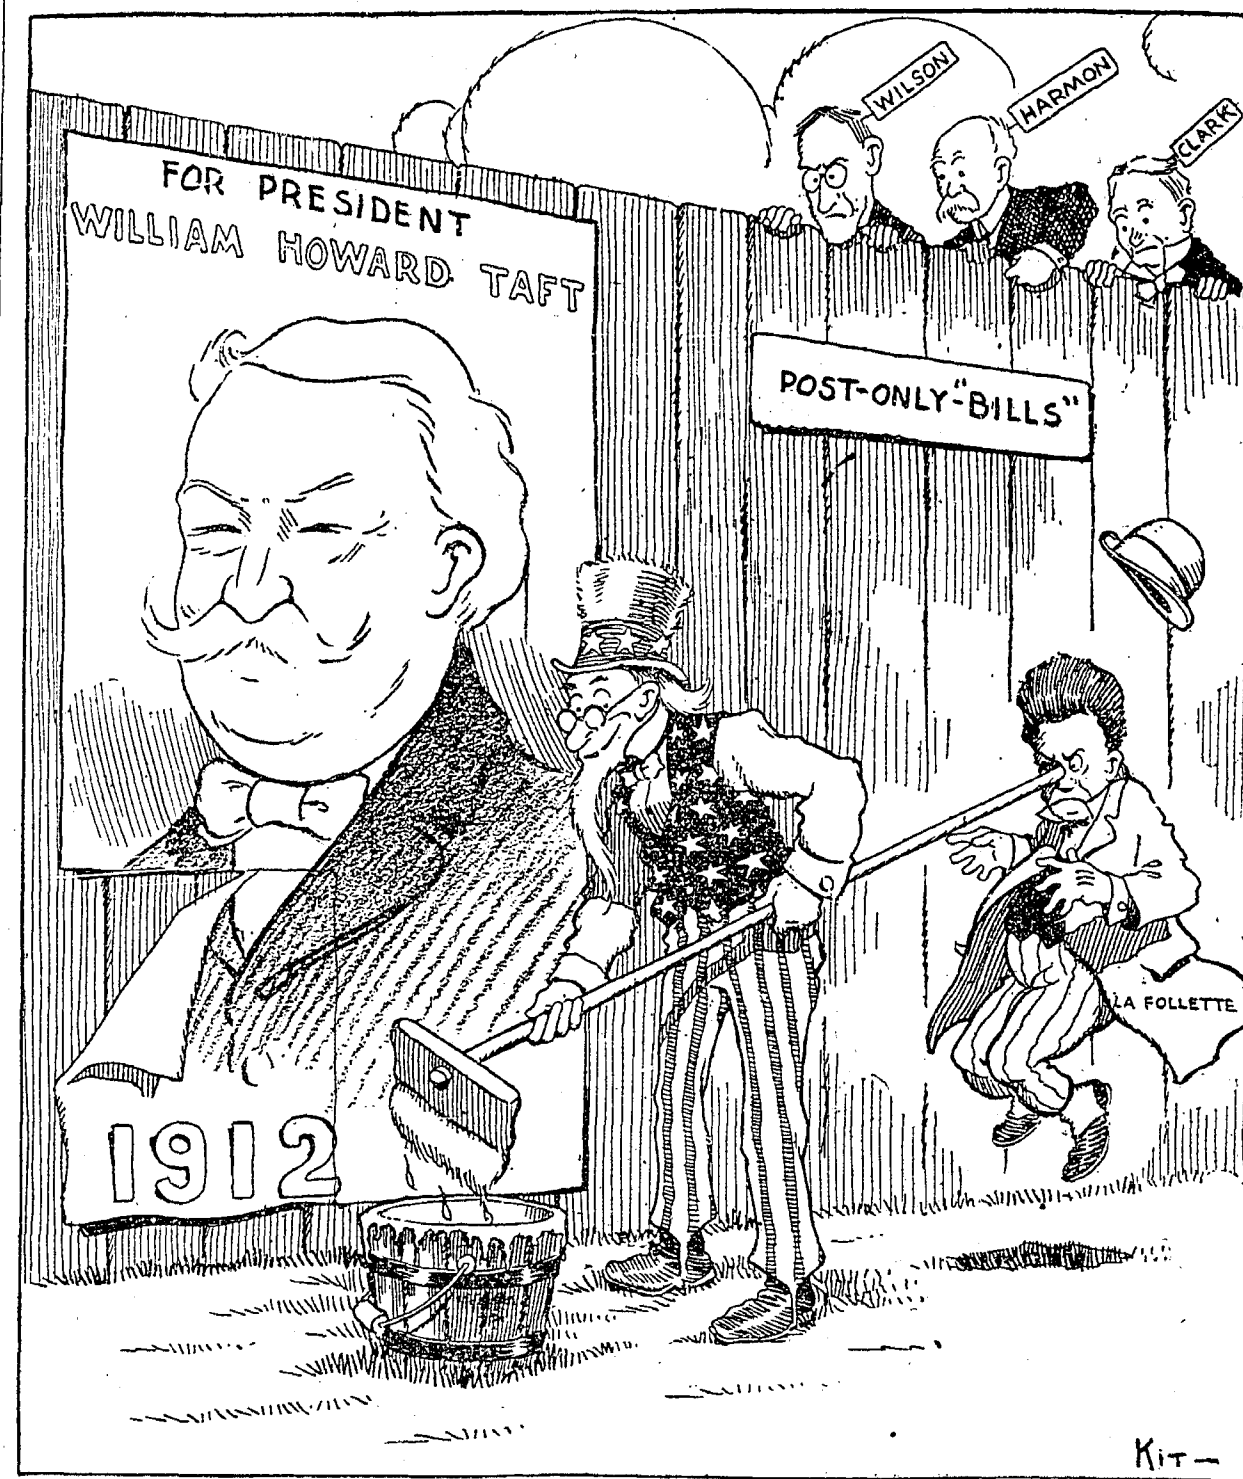

That hits La Follette off precisely. He is always trying to inflame popular passion, stir up prejudice and provoke ill-feeling. All his political arts are sedulously employed to create the impression that he is surrounded by crooks at Washington and is striving with might and main to keep somebody from stealing something. His writings and speeches are cunning laudations of his own honesty and independence and are likewise indictments of the integrity and good faith of men who disagree with him. He is constantly talking about "progressive" policies, but he never explains what those policies are. Quite true he denounces the railroads and the wealthy business men of the country, but is careful not to say just what he proposes to do.

Governor Osburn's taste is not to be commended, but he certainly has made a correct estimate of the Hon. Robert La Follette.

The Philadelphia Ledger says W. Morgan Shuster aroused in the Persians a glimmer of patriotism and national solidarity. He seems also to have effectually extinguished Persian independence. The patriotism and solidarity he aroused brought in the land the heel of the conqueror. By standing up against Russia Mr. Shuster seems to have served Russia's turn very well indeed.

Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans is dead. The news that he has answered the last roll call will cause profound regret throughout the nation, for he was a type that gains the affections of a people by doing his duty in simple, straight-forward, strenuous fashion. While on earth he always answered "ready" at roll call and was prepared for inspection. Let us hope that he was ready and prepared for inspection at the final call. He was a fine type of the American sailor of a past generation.

The Christmas spirit is not altogether in the egg nog. Many a man would start the new year with a better stomach for the future if he would only realize that fact.

Let Panama Alone.

The proposal to "investigate" the Panama republic is just a piece of shabby, partizan politics. What good could come of such an investigation? The republic of Panama has been recognized by nearly all the civilized powers. Our title to the canal strip rests upon the validity of the Panama government. Surely nobody will propose to return Panama to the jurisdiction of Colombia and begin a new game of diplomatic hide and seek.

The American people are pretty well informed about how the Republic of Panama came to be established. While the Caesarian operation which created a new nation overnight was not altogether creditable to the United States, it was one of those resources which conditions compel. Colombia showed herself determined to block the canal project or insist upon wildly absurd conditions. Practically there was a scheme in the Colombian Congress to blackmail the United States.

Then came the sudden secession of Panama from Colombia and the prompt recognition of the new government by President Roosevelt. Of course, every person of intelligence understood what was going on. It was plain that a new government had been organized to treat with the United States regarding the canal concession. We could not come to terms with Colombia, so we helped establish a government that we could treat with.

Now it cannot be contended that any harm has resulted. The canal is nearly completed and the Isthmus has been cleaned up and made healthy. This condition will not be disturbed. If the Democrats in Congress attempt to disturb it they will stir up a hornet's nest. The American people are bound to have the canal; they want to see it opened as speedily as possible and they will not permit it to be held up to serve a partizan turn. An investigation would be a farce anyhow since it could produce no tangible result.

Woodrow Wilson has a rocky row to hoe in his own State. He has mortally offended the Bourbon leaders in Hudson and Essex counties, containing Newark and Jersey City, and his enemies are giving him battle in his own county, Mercer. Governor Wilson antagonized former Senator James Smith by insisting that the Legislature should elect James B. Martine to the Senate. He employed all the power and influence of his office to defeat Smith, who is several times a millionaire and a resourceful politician. Smith and his friends are trying to take the New Jersey delegation away from the Governor. They think he will stand no show in the national convention without the vote of his own State behind him. But Grover Cleveland beat that game in 1892, and it is possible that Smith may make Wilson more popular by playing a manifest trick for the sake of revenge.

MYTHICAL NECKLACES

Cruel, indeed, are the jewelers who exploit the delightful fantasy wherein certain wealthy men have been pictured as purchasing $500,000 pearl necklaces for their wives. It was a pretty little fiction which should have lived to grow bigger and bigger until the rumored purchase of a billion-dollar necklace would have seemed the proper caper in this roaring republic.

At least two men of means were reported recently to have purchased necklaces at half a million dollars each as Christmas gifts to their wives. It is probable that they did buy some sort of presents, perhaps pearl necklaces but that they paid any such fabulous sums is a story that should be told exclusively to Britches.

The wholesale jewelers of New York say that the expenditure of $17,500 on a pearl necklace is extraordinary. The more usual purchase made by wealthy men amounts to about $5000. Thus two fine financial romances are made to bite the dust.

The stories of fortunes spent for single gifts are very much akin to the stories told of the fabulous sums of money possessed by certain men. Every man who elopes with an actress from Pittsburgh is described as a millionaire. Any man who happens to wear a clean collar in New York is likewise suspected to be a man of "great wealth."

There are some great fortunes in the United States, but not nearly so many as is generally believed. It is impossible, of course, for each person to have his or her $34, which is what they would have if there were an equal distribution of wealth. The number having sufficient wealth to purchase a $500,000 necklace at Christmas is so limited that stories of such purchases can be discounted even without investigation.

FOUNT OF KNOWLEDGE

I had a hundred dollars once—
A fortune, pretty near!
I kept it till I met a chap
Who whispered in my ear,
"Where a river and a railroad meet
A city sure must grow;
I have a site like this!"—and well,
I let the hundred go.

Another hundred then I saved,
And at the proper time
I met another chap who had
A mining venture, prime;
"It has machinery, shafts and all—
The others paid for that!—
You're just in time to get the cream!"
I coughed my hundred flat!

And still another hundred bones
I saved and salted down;
And met a chap who had the "bugs"
To start a "model town";
"It means a fortune big," he said,
"In privileges and rent;
Besides, it's real philanthropy!"
And then my hundred went!

Three hundred bones at Knowledge's shrine!
And, though I'm badly shorn,
I've learned that streams and rails can meet
Where cities can't be born;
I've learned that others' mining stock
Won't buy my bread and meat,
And "model towns" can get along Without an Easy Street!

HOWELLS ON HUMOR

We are sensible, or we seem to be sensible, of a full American humor, if we may so phrase it, in which we may look about us, and challenge the elements as to their intentions concerning it. Sometimes, we confess, we have been afraid that American humor has been overdone itself. There was a moment, lateful or hopeful as the reader may decide, when just before the lapse of faith, it appeared as if we almost expected to be saved by humor. This may have been quite an illusion, but it was strong enough to prompt the most serious inquiry into the nature of humor, and its place in the spiritual order of things. Clearly, one could not conceive of an angel joking, and, properly speaking, could there be any such thing as joking in heaven? By that time hell was about being disposed of by popular vote, or by a consensus of newspapers, rather, and it was only of heaven that one could think in the connection. Was there not something essentially cruel in humor? Did not it, in its last analysis, rest upon the decision of some human infirmity or deformity or imbecility, and could such things be matter of mirth with the heavenly host of any? The arch fiend, before he was blotted out by his followers by the newspapers and the new criticism, might have subtly coarsely found those obliquities funny; but, as might, Belzebub might, Mammon might, but could Michael, or Gabriel, or Ithuriel, before they were pined in the blaze of journalistic investigation? In the general substitution of humor for faith as a saving agency, one has to ask one's self these piercing questions.

Their consideration brought to light several facts concerning the nature of humor which one has to subject to the severest scrutiny. At first it appeared as if the broader humor were the kinder—was, in fact, not at all cruel, since it involved its object in a sort of confession of the general human weakness, and pitied while it laughed and invited its object to laugh with it. But this inference scarcely bore examination. There is nothing crueler than the fun of barbarians or of boys, and in the emergence from barbarism and boyhood into civilization and maturity, humor keeps too much of both. The joking in Rabelais is not only filthy; it is atrocious; and when you come to the humane humor of Cervantes, it still is an abominably unfeeling that it is doubtful whether Don Quixote has not died the death because the fun of the book was mostly so brutal that mankind could no longer bear it, rather than because the books of chivalry which it burlesqued were no longer known to readers, and the burlesque was unintelligible. Much of the humor in Shakespeare is cruel, so cruel that Mark Twain used to say that when it did not bore him it offended him past endurance. Consider what an awful thing the mocking of Malvolio was how heartless the jokes put upon the unfortunate. The one great English humorist who never had a suspicion of the high moral quality of his humor was Swift, who really seldom hurt but to heal, but who got himself permanently imagined a cynical savage by a humorist who ought to have been kinder to him and truer. He came nearer being the purely and entirely humorous humorist we are requiring from the future as a successor of Mark Twain, and he was the most eminent predecessor of Mark Twain in the consensated humor we must always associate with that great pseudonym.—William Dean Howells in Harper's Magazine.

NEW COLLEGE SPIRIT

The college spirit prevailing at Columbia has essentially a twentieth century quality, according to the analysis of it given by one of the professors of that institution.

"The desire to live, to do things," he writes in the Columbia University Quarterly, "keeps the student in an extraordinary ferment."

"Illustrations of this admirable though reckless self-sufficiency might be found in any 24 hours of Columbia term. Suggest to a group of men that they produce a play, especially a play that has not yet been produced, and you will find them preparing the performance with the assurance of veterans, though they probably have never acted before, and the performance will be excellent, by some miracle of youth.

"Or, sometimes, in his less spectacular moments, a student will think up and submit to the dean of his committee a detailed plan for the improvement of scholarship or college life, and the plan is nearly always worth trying. It follows, naturally, that the typical Columbia student does not think of scholarship apart from life. Not that he is a utilitarian, selecting only those subjects for study which will help him to a specific trade or profession. On the contrary, he more often identifies his life with his studies than his studies with his life.

"I asked a freshman how he came to know so much about Macbeth, and to take such an interest in him, and found that the boy was singing in the chorus of 'Sister Beatrice' at the New Theater. Ten years ago the college men who wrote were satisfied if their productions saw the light in the campus papers. Now they look at the average story in the average 'real' magazine, and argue that if they couldn't do better than that they have wasted their time in composition courses, so they write a story or an essay and it is better than the average, and in an astonishing number of cases it does get accepted.

"A senior typewrote a story for me and I met him on the campus a month later. 'By the way, professor,' he said, 'what have you done with that story?' I confessed I had not succeeded in placing it. 'I thought you would have trouble with it,' he said; 'it's a bit psychological. Now, copying it for you put me in the mood to dash off a little thing myself and I got a check for it this morning.' That's what made me think of you."

20 YEARS AGO IN OAKLAND

There is going to be a fight for the possession of the many thousands of dollars left by the late George Godfrey. It is estimated that his estate is worth at least $150,000. The old man was very bitter towards his divorced wife, Mary Neely, and he often expressed himself that he did not wish her to get a dollar after he had passed away. Mrs. Neely will contest to secure possession of the family mansion on Market street, now valued at $25,000.

County Assessor Lockie and his assistant, Will G. Hawke, have commenced work on the assessment rolls for 1912.

Among those who attended the grand ball given in Cavalry Hall by the First Hebrew Congregation of Oakland were the following: Alex Marx, Ben Marx, Joseph Harris, Miss Doretta Kirk, Nelson Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Coffee, Joe Rosenberg, Ben Letter, Rabbi M. S. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Jonas, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sampson, Sol Kahn, S. Samuels, Mr. and Mrs. L. Fibush, W. Abrahamson, Miss Jennie Rosenberg and many others.

A certificate has been filed with the county clerk showing that the following have been elected as trustees of the First Baptist Church for the ensuing year: John G. Hoyt, John H. Stevens, Charles F. Baker, Charles G. Reed and John L. Lyon.

Charles S. Wheeler, formerly of this city, has entered in partnership with the law firm of Garber, Boalt & Bishop of San Francisco. Wheeler was graduated from the Oakland High school and also was graduated in 1884 from the University of California.

John P. English, a nephew of W. D. English of this city, was yesterday sworn in as chief page of the House of Representatives. He has seen five or six terms of service and is well known and popular among the statesmen.

CAPITOL OFFICES ENTERED BY THIEF

Petty Pilfering Worries Superintendent Radcliffe; Money Is Stolen.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 4.—Petty thievery which has been going on at the state capitol for several weeks, assumed a more serious form yesterday when the rooms of the fish and game commission were entered and money taken from a desk.

Capitol Superintendent Radcliffe says that he has been annoyed recently by some one who has been pilfering from the capitol. The first evidence of this work was noticed while the legislature was in session. Since then several of the committee rooms on the fourth floor have been entered from time to time. Whether much of value has been taken remains to be ascertained after an inventory has been taken by the occupants of the rooms.

ENGINEER HURT IN FALL FROM TRAIN

F. C. Adamson Becomes Unconscious On Reaching Home.

F. C. Adamson, of 1022 Adeline street, Oakland, received injuries about the head, Tuesday morning while alighting from an electric train. He reached home and immediately became unconscious and was taken to the Railroad hospital in San Francisco, where it was found he had received a fractured skull. He is an engineer on the Southern Pacific railroad.

BOY CUTS HIS TONGUE; IS BLEEDING TO DEATH

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 4.—Louis Cagner, aged 4 years, is bleeding to death in St. Elizabeth's hospital. He tore his tongue loose from a piece of railroad iron, to which he touched it nearly a week ago, causing a small cut. He was living on a ranch on the Columbia river, and the wound in his tongue was not considered serious for a time until his mother found it impossible to stop the bleeding. He was brought to North Yakima Monday, and all arteries supplying blood to the tongue were tied up. A break occurred in one of the arteries and the bleeding resumed. The doctor declares there is almost no hope.

WONDERFUL KARA
PLEASES CROWDS
AT BELL THEATER

KARA, the juggler.

Kara, conceded to be the world's greatest juggler, is creating unusual interest at the Bell Theater this week, where he is headlined in conjunction with Joe Tinker, the famous little ball player of Chicago. Kara's act is remarkable in many ways. The laws of gravitation seem suspended temporarily while this master wizard is on the stage, for the feats he apparently accomplishes with so much ease have been the stumbling block of many lesser lights in the realm of jugglery.

The heavy articles manipulated by Kara would seem to indicate superhuman strength. His assistant is responsible for the comedy and while an act of the character of Kara's holds one's minute attention yet the laughs created by the funny fellow on the stage are a relief for the nervous tension contributory to the work of Kara himself.

JOE TINKER PLEASES.
Joe Tinker is first of all a ball player—he eats, drinks and sleeps baseball—after that he's in vaudeville for the love of it—no—for the money, certainly.

This is Tinker's first Western trip as a Theatrical and his second public appearance in Oakland. In 1904 Joe was with the Cubs on their training trip to California and played exhibition games in this city. The close of the 1911 season marked his tenth year with the Cubs, during which time Murphy's team has only once finished below third place. Tinker went to the Cubs from the Portland club, in the old Pacific Northwest League, in 1900 and has been on Murphy's pay roll ever since.

POPULAR FAVORITES.
Two extremely popular favorites are Dolph and Susie Levine. Mr. Levine is a clever cartoonist, harpist and general all-round good fellow and clever performer. He's been in the business so long he knows it backwards.

Direct from the principal music halls of dear old London comes Maude and Gill in an act that possesses many surprising turns.

Jack Donahue and Alice Stewart are two of vaudeville's most magnetic singing and dancing artists. Miss Stewart is a fascinating, dainty, doll-like girl, wonderfully clever as a dancer, while Mr. Donahue does the country-pumpkin.

Owen Wright belongs to the drawing-room class of entertainers, being a versatile monologist, imitator and whistler.

Robinson and Bowen, cross-fire comedy artists, open in an original duo of mirth provoking antics.

CLUB WOMEN ARE IN DREAM LAND

Poem On Dreams Has Chicagoans Dreaming, or Guessing.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Professor George F. James, of the University of Minnesota, dropped into Chicago and dropped out again, leaving club women guessing as to which one of them is a "dreamer."

Professor James spoke on education to a gathering of women at the Women's club. Among other things, he urged public school teachers to pledge themselves not to permit matrimony, or other distractions to interfere with their school work for a period of two years.

Then he read a short poem by Florence Earl Coates, after making the statement: "There is one woman among you—only one—to whom it might with entire justice have been dedicated."

The poem begins:
"Dream the great dream, though you should dream—only you."

After the lecture the women swarmed about the professor, demanding to know was meant.

He declined to say, and the women, save the one for whom the remark was made, were left guessing.

CHAMPAGNE GROWERS COMING TO CALIFORNIA

SAN JOSE, Jan. 4.—Champagne growers from France may locate in the Santa Clara valley and invest millions of dollars in the industry here, according to an announcement at the Chamber of Commerce meeting by Paul Masson, the local champagne maker. Masson stated that representatives of the French growers, who have been forced out of France by the champagne riots, will come to San Jose in February to look into conditions thoroughly, and he is of the opinion that they will locate great colonies here.

Masson believes that two-thirds of the land in the Santa Clara valley is adapted to wine producing and little else, and that champagne which will rival anything in the world can be made here. He quoted statistics to show that only 400 acres of land are now in vine producing grapes and that the acreage can be profitably extended to include many thousands of acres more.

LEAP YEAR BAIT THURSTON'S MEAL

Mme. Tingley Tells How Mrs. Patterson Angled at Point Loma.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 4.—The bitterness of the fight by George L. Patterson of Newcastle, Pa., banker, against Madame Katherine Tingley, head of the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical society, to break his mother's will, which left Mrs. Tingley and her associates $242,700, was relieved temporarily by a leap year episode. Madame Tingley testified that Mrs. Patterson had proposed marriage to Clark Thurston, an aged member of the brotherhood who lived at the theosophical institute at Point Loma, and who was a member of Mrs. Tingley's "cabinet." This was about a year before Mrs. Thurston's (then Patterson) death.

"Thurston was embarrassed by the proposal," said Madame Tingley, "but he finally married Mrs. Patterson." Further examination of Madame Tingley by Judge J. W. McKinley of Los Angeles, counsel for Patterson, elicited the statements that she had conversed with Mrs. Patterson about her property, that Mrs. Patterson had loaned her $50,000 on a mortgage on the 16th theater here, which Madame Tingley owns, and that Mrs. Patterson had made her a gift of $5000.

Mme. Tingley was questioned closely about the management of the household and a copy of the constitution and bylaws was read which showed her to be absolute law there; she can appoint and remove the cabinet, revoke its acts and name her own successor. The booklet which was read concludes with the statement that the official seal of the brotherhood shall be "a circle of a serpent swallowing its tail."

She was asked for the letters Mrs. Patterson had written her, and her lawyers promised to produce them. Mme. Tingley admitted she had written Arthur Frisbie of Fresno, Cal., former member of the brotherhood, stating that she had investigated Mrs. Patterson's business affairs at Kingston, N. Y.—where Mrs. Patterson-Thurston died, afterward—and found them in a tangled condition.

NIXON OBJECTS TO RALSTON ON JOB

Nevada Senator Enters Fight to Keep Him Out of the Sub-treasury.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The reappointment of William C. Ralston as sub-treasurer at San Francisco is beset with difficulty and indications point to another selection by Senators Perkins and Works. Not only is Works violently opposed to Ralston, but Senator Nixon of Nevada has joined the opposition.

Works has told Perkins that he does not object to the selection of any good man in San Francisco except Ralston, but that he can not accept Ralston on account of his political activity against Works' friends, including Governor Johnson.

Perkins is sticking to Ralston, but he will not go to the extent of breaking with his colleague in the Senate. Nixon is said to have told the California senators that it would be wise for them to choose some man other than Ralston.

Regular Republicans in California are sending in protests against the appointment of Adolph Uhl, who has been recommended by Meyer Lissner and others. Uhl is described in these protests as a rampant opponent of Taft. Many of Ralston's friends are trying to smooth the way to his reappointment.

40,000 POSTAL BANKS IS HITCHCOCK'S PLANS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Theodore L. Wood, chief clerk of the postoffice, today was appointed director of the postal savings system at $500 a year. The office is a new one, made necessary by the extraordinary development of the postal savings system, which is receiving deposits aggregating a million dollars a week.

Postmaster General Hitchcock predicted yesterday that before the end of the current fiscal year the postal savings deposits would exceed fifty million dollars, and that the system not only would be self-sustaining, but a source of profit to the government. Already the deposits exceed $15,000,000.

Of the four important offices that opened for business August 1, Chicago, November 1, New York, and Boston, $17,162,912; New York was second with $11,769,812; Boston third with $10,454,454, and St. Louis fourth with $11,606,000.

STATE COMMISSION OPPOSES JUDGE HOOK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—California congressmen yesterday presented to President Taft a protest of the California railroad commission against the appointment of Judge Hook to the United States supreme bench. Telegrams received from the commission by the department stated that Judge Hook held "theories absolutely untenable and destructive of the powers of both the federal and state governments adequately to regulate carriers."

FOOL THERE WAS, NAME UNKNOWN

Blonde With Flirty Eyes Lures Him Into the Hands of Highwaymen.

SAN JOSE, Jan. 4.—The San Jose police department is anxiously seeking the identity of a man who would rather lose $2000 than to have the folk at home know that a pretty blonde woman riotously inclined had lured him into the hands of a couple of masked highwaymen.

The woman and the masked men are safely locked behind the bars of the city prison here, but their alleged victim has disappeared. It is believed that he is a prominent and wealthy man of Buellington, formerly of Astoria, Ore., and Grand Canyon, Ariz. Her alleged accomplices are Wilson Howman and Jesse Cole. None are known to the police.

Mrs. McBride was loitering in the Market street station Tuesday night when the man from Buellington noticed her. He was waiting for the northbound 10:30 train out of San Jose, but he forgot the train when he caught a flash from her eyes and remained to carry on the flirtation.

The woman invited him to a hotel in Guadalupe street and he accepted. She suggested that they enter by a rear door instead of the front. He agreed, and as they were about to go up the steps they were stopped by two highwaymen and the woman fled. The man was relieved of $2000.

The robbery was reported to the police, but the victim was averse to giving them his name. "I would rather lose $2000 than have it got out," he said. The woman is said to have confessed completely in the hold-up, but the men are silent and they may be alibied if the men cannot be found. He is described as being about 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighing about 160 pounds. He wore a dark business suit and a soft felt hat. One of the robbers has a gunshot wound in the left hand.

GREAT BRITAIN PROPOSES AT CANAL PROPOSAL

LONDON, Jan. 4.—British shipping people are expressing great indignation at the suggestion that a preference should be given to American vessels passing through the Panama canal. Some of the leading shippers have received the suggestion with incredulity. Most of them say that such a policy would be a breach of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The Morning Post gives interviews with prominent shipping men and adds an independent editorial. It states that the Port of the 2nd level of the canal, which is a British colony, is a British colony, and that the British government, which is a British colony, is a British colony. The British government, which is a British colony, is a British colony.

BERLIN EPIDEMIC IS DECLARED TO BE CHOLERA

PARIS, Jan. 4.—Many people here believe the epidemic among vagrants in Berlin was undoubtedly Asiatic cholera, and that it was probably introduced to the German capital by way of Hamburg through immigrants. Medical men hesitate to give an opinion. They point out, however, that sanitary precautions which have been taken by the Berlin authorities are exactly the same as would be taken for cholera.

It is possible, French physicians say, that the disease is pneumonic plague, a person of the highest authority, who refused to allow his name to be used, told a correspondent that the Berlin disease was surely cholera.

BODY OF FUGITIVE FOUND.

WILLOWS, Jan. 4.—The body of Henry Blondell, the aged county hospital inmate, who escaped several weeks ago and tried to go to his mountain ranch west of here, was found on the Spaulding ranch, south of Willows, last evening. He had been dead for several days. Blondell had been in the hospital for a number of years. He was slightly demented, and had escaped five times during confinement.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will gladly get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WOMEN'S WOES

Oakland Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up" must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with aching backs and many aches round kidney hills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health follows. Read of a remedy for kidneys that helps and strengthens the kidneys and is endorsed by people in this locality.

Mrs. George Farlow, 1907 University avenue, Berkeley, Cal., says: "I heartily commend Doan's Kidney Pills both from my own experience with them and from the experience of other members of my family. I consider them an effective and reliable remedy for all troubles arising from disordered kidneys. Their value cannot be overestimated."

For sale by all dealers. Price 25 cents. Doan's Kidney Pills, Buffalo, New York. Get agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take it often.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—"Until the report is sent out I have nothing to say in regard to the University of Illinois."

RAILWAYS FIGHTING FOR BERKELEY TRAFFIC

EXTEND LINES INTO NEW DISTRICTS

Southern Pacific and Key Route
Seek Passengers in the College City.

Millions Spent in Improving
Systems Handling Local Travel.

BERKELEY, Jan. 4.—The principal battleground on which the commuter traffic fight between the Key Route and Southern Pacific companies will be waged lies in the newly developing residence and business districts of Berkeley. The war has been threatening for many months, with the construction of both corporations of new and lengthy lines, making a network of tracks through North Oakland and Berkeley. With the inauguration of service on two new lines of the Southern Pacific in this city since the first of the year, on Ellsworth and California streets, following the operation of the new Shattuck avenue Electric road to Thousand Oaks beyond Northbrae, the competition has fairly begun and will become more interesting as new residence districts tapped by both companies become thickly settled and new traffic develops.

PARTIAL SERVICE BEGUN.
Today a partial service was established on the new California street line of the Southern Pacific, with an 80-minute schedule. It is expected that by the end of the week trains will be running every twenty minutes.

Within a week or two the most gigantic move of the company for new traffic will be made in the starting of trains over the lengthy loop system, formed partly by the California street line, running through central Berkeley to Solano avenue in the northern part of the city, the tracks on the avenue making the connection with the Ninth street line in the town of Albany.

The Ninth street line runs through the center of West Berkeley, and taps an extensive factory and residence district. The Key Route has not yet invaded the west end of Berkeley, although it placed in operation on November 15, 1911, a "city" service on the Sacramento street, paralleling within two blocks the California street line of its rival. This Key Route line runs along Sacramento and Hopkins streets to the center of Northbrae, where it figures in the competition with the Southern Pacific's Shattuck avenue extension to that district.

ALSO TAPS ALBANY.
A branch of the Key Route also reaches from Sacramento street to Albany, where the company again enters into competition with its active rival. Rumors of plans whereby the Key Route is to extend its Shattuck avenue line beyond the present terminus at University avenue, in the center of the business district, have been revived with the beginning of real hostilities between the railroads. The San Francisco, Oakland & San Jose Railway Company has watched with envious eyes the electrification of the Southern Pacific road on Shattuck avenue, which has been extended almost a mile north of the old Berryman terminal, and taps important territory lying north of the Key Route terminal on Shattuck and many blocks east of the Sacramento line of that corporation.

The Southern Pacific has executed a flank movement by placing in operation within the last week a fast electric train service on Ellsworth street, but two blocks east of the Key Route line on Shattuck avenue, paralleling the latter between the university campus on the north and the city street on the south. This place of competition covers the exclusive residence sections south of the college grounds almost to the southern boundary of the city.

ADVANTAGE GAINED.
The Southern Pacific now has the advantage in that its line is reached by commuters two blocks east of its rivals, and convenience is counted upon by the older corporation to give it the advantage.

The weakness of this part of the Southern Pacific's general scheme of strategy, however, is that the stations on Ellsworth street number but two, their locations being at the Allston way terminus and at Derby street, while the Key Route makes stops through the same general territory at Bancroft way, Dwight way and Ashby avenue. The Allston way terminus touches the State University grounds and brings passengers several blocks nearer the college buildings than the Key Route. The Southern Pacific thus hopes to secure the regular student commuter trade, which is quite extensive, as many students have their homes in San Francisco, as well as get the bulk of the general traffic to the university and to handle the big crowds that attend football games, Greek Theater plays and the like.

NORTHERN TERMINAL.
The Southern Pacific has decided to form its immense loop by connecting the California street, instead of the Shattuck avenue line, with the Ninth street road. The Shattuck avenue and Northbrae trains will have as their northern terminal point the junction of Colusa and Solano avenues in Northbrae, where the California street line turns westward toward Albany to form the loop.

To make its plan of competition with the Key Route in Berkeley complete, the Southern Pacific has constructed and reconstructed a total of 18 1/2 miles of electric lines, including the double track from Oakland pier to Shellmound Junction and the old steam line through the city. The cost has been approximately $2,000,000. Many engineering difficulties have been surmounted in building the lines through the northern part of the city, and much private property has been purchased for right of way purposes. No further extensions are likely to be made in this city for years by this company.

The Key Route, however, is not believed to have completed its plans, and more construction, probably through the northern part of the city, is considered probable before 1915.

OAKLAND 'KIDS' TO BE TRIBUNE'S GUESTS

ADDRESS

Good only on afternoons of Monday and Tuesday, January 8th and 9th, between 1 and 5 o'clock.

This Coupon must be filled out and presented at the door to assure admission.

Good news for Oakland kidland.

There's a treat in store for every child of 12 years or under.

THE TRIBUNE will be host.

Monday and Tuesday, January 8 and 9, will be the days.

The Oakland Photo theater will be the place.

And hold your breath, kids—CINDERELLA WILL BE THE THING!

What do you know about that?

Was ever better news broken anywhere?

Not since any of us remember.

Read on and know everything.

On January 7, 8 and 9 at the Oakland Photo theater there is to be shown in three reels, ninety-seven scenes and 3000 feet of films the greatest story of childhood that was ever told. The tale of Cinderella is as well known to most of us as our own lives, but never has it been pictured outside of our minds. Now comes the Selig company with an announcement that Cinderella has been dramatized and acted on the silent stage, with Miss Mabel Taliaferro in the title role.

WOULD HAVE FAILED.

A woman of less brains or less discerning personality than Miss Taliaferro would have failed most ingloriously, both in her attempt to seize the scepter of Cinderella, and in succeeding to make the world in general accept her as the successor of dainty "Cinderella" of our storybook days.

The Selig Polyscope company have erected a triumphal arch around this beloved legend, through which Prince Charming and Cinderella lead their imperial cortege. In staging this mammoth spectacle, the Selig people illustrate the truism that life is activity, and the three-reel production is a fitting tribute to their untiring efforts to lift to a higher plane the moving picture industry.

That the story proves of absorbing interest to old and young alike is a foregone conclusion, inasmuch as Cinderella meets the demands of all ages, and is destined to live long after less ambitious efforts of silent drama have served their puny functions and have been forgotten.

There you have it. That is what THE TRIBUNE is going to give to Oakland's children. Cinderella in moving pictures—3000 feet of them, one hour and a half of them, three big reels of magnificence with nothing omitted.

LOOK FOR COUPON.

Look for the coupon, real it carefully, clip it, fill it out and present it at the door of the Oakland Photo theater.

Remember these things.

The coupon is printed only in THE TRIBUNE.

It is good only between 1 and 5 o'clock of Monday and Tuesday, January 8 and 9.

Children of 12 years or under are entitled to use it.

Cinderella in pictures—guests of THE TRIBUNE—that's news for Oakland's kidland.

EVIDENCE OF BIG FLEET TO
SHOWN

Pencil Memorandum Is Introduced at Trial of Accused Beef Packers.

Volume of Armour's Business Brought Into Hearing at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—Special Counsel James F. Sheehan today introduced in evidence several statements showing that the volume of business done by Armour & Co. for 147 weeks between 1898 and 1899 was slightly less than that done in a preceding period, when the packers' trial resumed today.

William D. Mills said the statements had been mailed to him as manager of the Armour Packing Company at Kansas City, from the packers' combination of offices in the Counselman building, Chicago. The witness said that the percentage basis used in figuring the margin was frequently changed as the volume of business done by the combine fluctuated.

"Do you know of instances where several members of the combination were shipping to the same point that the members agreed either to increase or decrease the volume of shipments?" asked Attorney Sheehan.

"Yes, I remember one case. Armour had cooling houses at Hazelton, Pa., and agreed on the shipments to that point to prevent flooding that market."

MEMO OF AGREEMENT.

Mills was shown a pencil memorandum in his own handwriting bearing on the alleged packers' agreement of 1902, which he identified. He was unable to say what use had been made of the figures in the memorandum.

He was shown a copy of an unsigned letter addressed to C. Armour of the Armour Packing Company, at Kansas City, which he said he had seen before. However, he was unable to explain all the figures in regard to the shipments, but said he believed it had been sent out from the packers' combination in Chicago.

"Did you ever see that letter in the grand jury room?" shouted Attorney Sheehan.

Counsel for the defendants instantly were on their feet to object and they were sustained. Further efforts by the government's attorney to secure an admission that he had seen the letter when he was before the federal grand jury was overruled.

The witness said he remembered specific instances where certain members of the combination were permitted to ship more than their maximum percentage of fresh meat to Baltimore and Washington. He was unable to remember certain resolutions regarding the limiting of shipments offered at meetings of the packers' pool in 1902.

OAKLAND BROKER
GETS BIG LOAN

San Francisco Capitalist Has $25,000 Mortgage On Interurban Lands.

There was placed on record today by E. H. Lohmann, the San Joaquin broker, a deed of trust for $25,000 on a piece of property consisting of 27 acres on the boulevard between San Lorenzo and San Leandro. The loan was made by a San Francisco capitalist.

The money is on the line of the Key Route extension to San Joaquin and will be subdivided and placed on the market next spring.

The making of this loan by outside capital is further evidence of the confidence of investors in Oakland and its outlying districts.

HOLD MIMIC WARFARE

More Than 30 Warships Will Take Part in Maneuvers
Off Guantanamo.

73,500 Tons of Coal to Be Consumed by Vessels
During Drills.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Some-where off the coast of Guantanamo, during the next few weeks, the entire Atlantic fleet of about twenty-one battleships, four armored cruisers and about a dozen torpedo boat destroyers will be engaged in one of the most difficult games of mimic-warfare ever devised for American naval commanders.

As the search problem will have some part in the mimic warfare, the commanding officers of the various vessels have no particular dates for sailing, but will leave their home stations at their own discretion.

Several battleships and cruisers and smaller craft are now at Hampton Roads, and the third division sailed from Philadelphia Tuesday. When these vessels put to sea they probably will spread out and proceed to the scene of battle singly or in divisions, probably arriving in the vicinity of Guantanamo about January 11.

The new battleships Florida and Utah, which have been making "shaking down runs" since they were commissioned recently, will join the fleet and engage in maneuvers for the first time.

Coal enough to warm a good-sized city will be consumed by the fleet in the winter drills. Just 73,500 tons of coal have been purchased for the exercises. Already 21,500 tons of the fuel has reached Guantanamo on the colliers Maes, Vulcan and Hector, which arrived at that port yesterday. The colliers Cyclops, Ajax, Brutus and Caesar, with a second consignment of about 22,000 tons, will sail for Guantanamo about January 20, and the third consignment of about 30,000 tons will be sent in naval colliers to that port the latter part of February.

PROPOSED ARBITRATION
TREATY IS DENOUNCED

'Administration Is Blundering Into Entangling Alliance With Great Britain'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Charging that the administration was blundering into an entangling alliance with Great Britain, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, on the floor of the Senate today denounced the proposed arbitration treaty, which would lead to an entangling alliance with the president to appoint commissioners to a high court of arbitration without the consent of the senate was revolutionary and dangerous.

The proposed treaty, he said, would wipe out this nation's time-honored treaty-making plan and would result virtually in the adoption of the system practiced by the monarchial powers.

FEARS ENTANGLEMENT.

"The president would authorize three commissioners to name and submit differences to arbitration without consulting constitutional representatives of the people of the United States," he insisted. That is the legitimate and honest interpretation of this treaty. That is what the joint high commission is for. It is the trap in this treaty; it is a device to permit an entangling alliance by and over our executive to negotiate a treaty without restraint from the senate, with the government of Great Britain and in my opinion, Mr. President, it must lead to an entangling alliance with Great Britain in the foreign policy of Great Britain."

In support of his assertion Senator Hitchcock read an extract from a speech by Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs in the house of commons, on March 18, last, when he said:

"But, supposing it took place, and two of the greatest nations in the world were to make it clear to the whole world that by agreement, such as that, that in no

Aged Albion Banker Tells How Crime of Trusted Officials
Was Uncovered.

DETROIT, Jan. 4.—H. M. Dearing and his son, Palmer M. Dearing, the Albion bankers and confessed forgers, were received at the Wayne county jail today as federal prisoners. The grand jury is not in session at present and it may be two months before indictments can be returned.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 4.—"It's the Leavenworth prison for me, and the sooner the better," said H. M. Dearing, the aged Albion banker, as he prepared to leave for Detroit today with his son, Palmer M. Dearing, in custody of a United States marshal. Father and son had confessed forgeries amounting to $165,000, that resulted in the closing of the Albion National Bank last Tuesday.

"Is there any hope for the depositors?" the elder prisoner was asked.

"An instant the man appeared on the verge of breaking down. Then he choked back the tears and replied:

"No; none at all."

The men were bound over to the federal grand jury at Detroit under $25,000 bonds each.

TELLS OF SUSPICIONS.

ALBION, Mich., Jan. 4.—Dr. W. O. O'Donoghue, the aged president of the Albion National Bank today told the story of his first suspicions and the subsequent investigations which led to the discovery of the forgeries which led to the bank's collapse.

"For years Cashier Dearing had been the trusted employee of the bank, and," the president said, "when Dearing told us to make a loan, a loan was made. His word was always final with us and never questioned."

"It was last Friday," he continued, "that by accident I found a discrepancy of 50 cents in the books. I made further investigation, half to satisfy my curiosity and half to try to correct the error. Next I found a discrepancy of $2. I continued my investigation and found startling discrepancies. I called other members of the bank and told them of my findings. We notified M. Johnson, the national bank examiner, who took charge of the investigation."

"Then," he said, "the forgeries reach close to $150,000. It is a hard blow, but I hope the matter is adjusted speedily to the best interests of the creditors. All I have will be turned over to them."

President O'Donoghue is now in his 73d year.

WILLIAMS GIRL
SWEARS TO WARRANTS

Two Bellboys Who Testified for
Dr. Joslen Are Accused of Perjury.

Young Woman Declares That Their Testimony Regarding Her Was False.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Co-incidental with the taking up of a new line of testimony by the defense in the trial of Dr. Otto C. Joslen this morning was the issuing of two warrants for the arrest of witnesses who testified on Tuesday and yesterday in favor of the accused physician. Ethel Williams was taken to the home of Police Judge Deasy at 9 o'clock this morning and swore to the accusations charging Martin Prince and Joseph Watkins, bellboys at the Fairmont and Palace hotels, respectively, with perjury. Prince had been arrested last night by Detectives Murphy and Driscoll and was charged at 11 a. m. today, but Watkins has not been apprehended. It is charged that their evidence, that Miss Williams was ordered out of the Palace hotel last August was false.

At the opening of today's session there was the liveliest battle between counsel that has so far figured in the trial and the "retort courteous" was notably absent. Ethel A. Wolf, a sister man, was on the stand and Attorney Murphy took occasion to object to a query put by Lawyer Shortridge, charging that he well knew it was inadmissible.

LAWYERS GET BUSY.

"I have been insulted and I won't stand for these remarks any further," fired Shortridge.

"Who are you, I'd like to know?" snapped Murphy. "I have been insulted some myself."

Judge Lawlor tried to put in a word, but Shortridge would not be silent. Raising his voice and index finger, the counsel looked frowningly upon Murphy and retorted: "You, of all men in California, to speak that way. This is the limit from this person." The latter words were addressed to the court who had by this time succeeded in warning both attorneys that they must proceed with the trial.

Wolf, of seeing Ethel Williams and another girl on the corner in front of his cigar stand many times and said he had spoken to her once, asking her why she was out so late, and she replied that they were waiting for an auto ride which had not materialized.

KNEW DR. JOSLEN.

He admitted that he did not know anything wrong about the girl and upon cross-examination Attorney Murphy brought out that he knew Dr. Joslen and had been acquainted with Mrs. Joslen since her childhood.

Mrs. Katherine Powers, one of the owners of Powers' candy store, at which Ethel Williams worked, told of her employment of the young woman.

Prior to the taking of evidence today counsel for the prosecution stated that they would not object to the defense introducing evidence tending to show the habits and customs of Ethel Williams, the complaining witness.

Cigarmaker Takes Joy
Ride on a Locomotive

WEBSTER, Mass., Jan. 4.—A locomotive "joy ride" is declared by railroad officials to have been the cause of a head-on collision here last night between a passenger and a wild engine. Eleven passengers were injured. The police are today holding Ralph I. Jardine, a Worcester carmaker, who is said to have been at the throttle of the runaway locomotive.

While the engine was standing without an occupant in the railroad yard at Worcester, Jardine is said to have climbed aboard and the train ran in seventeen miles in a wild flight to this city, where he collided with the passenger train. Flying coils set fire to an express car and the fire department spent an hour extinguishing the blaze.

OAKLANDER TRIES TO KILL HIMSELF

While Temporarily Insane He Slashes Both Wrists With a Razor.

While temporarily insane, J. H. Merkle, a fence builder, residing at 1070 Jefferson street, attempted to commit suicide this morning about 5 o'clock by cutting both of his wrists with a razor tied to a bed post and throwing himself out of his bedroom window. The fall from the window, which faces the lawn on the ground floor, was about fifteen feet but Merkle was not hurt, having thrown up the sash before jumping. The police were called and took the demented man to the Receiving Hospital, where the lacerated wrists were dressed and he is being held for observation.

Merkle had been ill for some time and it was stated by the landlady, Mrs. Fay, that he had brooded over separation from his wife. He had been drinking heavily during the holidays. The left two police officers were called to take him to the hospital. He was addressed to his mother in San Francisco and the other to Mrs. Fay, in which he stated that he would pay her the balance of the rent due. If he recovered Merkle had lived in the boarding house since last July and was known as a quiet boarder. He was employed by the Oakland Fencing Company on Eleventh street.

Heavyweights to Battle Tomorrow; West Oakland Club to Stage Lightweights

FANS WAGERING GUNBOAT SMITH DEFEATS JACK GEYER

Federal Club Have Interesting Card of Mitt Welders Scheduled to Meet; Britton Will Be Put to Test

The big fellows are ready. Gunboat Smith and Jack Geyer, the heavyweights, who will head the card of the Federal Club at Dreamland Pavilion tomorrow night, put the finishing touches to their training stunts this morning and from now on till the fight will spend the time in light exercises.

Both look in the best possible shape and there is going to be no chance for that somewhat worn excuse, "lack of condition," should one of the other take the count or lose at the end. Both have realized what a victory means, for the winner will be in a line for greater and bigger games, as the promoters will not overlook the fact that the fans are anxious to see a heavyweight bout at any old time if the men can and will fight.

GUNBOAT IS FAVORITE.
As for the chances of the two big fellows tomorrow night, Gunboat rules favorite among the fans who like to wager and his recent clean-cut win over sturdy Charley Horn boosted the stock of the Gunboat to the skies. There was plenty in that fight to make the fans fall for the big fellow. He fought a clean, hard fight all the way through, and all the time showed a willingness to mix.

That one thing the fans fear—lack of heart—did not stand in the Gunboat's way, and he fought Horn as if he was the bravest scrapper in all the ring. To the writer's mind, the one fault of Gunboat Smith has been utter disregard for the seriousness of the fight game up to the time he fought Horn.

Before the Gunboat looked upon a bout as a joke and cut up too many dices in the ring. Evidently he has cut these out and intends to fight as he should fight, if that course is pursued tomorrow night the Gunboat will be a good bet.

GEYER FILLED WITH CONFIDENCE.
Jack Geyer, the opponent of Smith, is sanguine that he can again lay the Gunboat just as he did in the last fight, time ago, and will lay a few "smacks," as he terms the coin of Uncle Sam, on him to be the time when the Gunboat has the big fellow has started over the bar, once in a four round bout with

OAKLAND BALL TEAM HOLDS MEETING AND ELECTS OFFICERS

At its annual meeting held last evening at the Oakland Baseball Association, the Oakland Ball Team held a meeting and elected officers for the ensuing year and outlined a plan of campaign to give Oakland another winning team for the coming season of the Pacific Coast League.

The following were elected directors of the club for the year: E. N. Walter, J. W. Dickinson, J. P. Cook, E. L. Lester, and F. W. Leach. The directors organized by electing E. N. Walter president and J. P. Cook secretary-treasurer. H. S. McFarlin was re-elected assistant secretary and treasurer.

Plans for the coming season were discussed and it was the consensus of opinion that the outlook for a fast and representative team for Oakland was very promising. The president was asked to secure the presence of the new manager of the Oakland Athletics, who had been given this city a winning team in the coming pennant race.

President Walter stated he had heard nothing but the best reports concerning the new leader, and he expected that he would ally himself with the fans and the local situation, so that he would be in the best position possible to give this city a winning team in the coming pennant race.

NEW YORKERS OFFER JOHNSON $15,000 TO BOX JEANETTE

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A local athletic club telegraphed to Jack Johnson today an offer of $15,000 to meet Joe Jeanette in a ten-round bout here. Club managers said it was useless to match "white horses" with Johnson. The proposed terms are $15,000 to Johnson and $300 to Jeanette. Johnson had previously stipulated $20,000 as his price for a bout of twenty rounds. The managers hoped he may be induced to fight ten rounds for half that price.

Both teams have been diligent at practice and the game promises to be of interest. It will be called at 10 o'clock.

Following is the standing of the teams: McKinley ..... 2 0 4

DOCTORS INFORM US WOLCAST IS OUT OF DANGER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 4.—Ad Wolcast, lightweight champion, who has been threatened with an attack of pneumonia, has been pronounced out of danger by his physicians.

"But that doesn't mean that he's out of bed," remarked Manager Tom Jones, "for he isn't. Wolcast will be kept in bed for a few days, and he will not be allowed to get up until every vestige of a chance for a relapse has disappeared. Then he will be allowed out only by degrees, and there will be no more night automobile rides."

LOOKS LIKE KLING TO MANAGE BOSTON BALL TEAM

BOSTON, Jan. 4.—At a meeting of the Boston National League baseball club today, the papers were signed by the club president, John F. Connolly, and the club manager, John Kling, who has been named before Friday. That the man will be Johnny Kling is the belief of the local baseball followers. During the coming season Kling will be the manager of the team.

JAMES E. SULLIVAN IS SERIOUSLY ILL IN NEW YORK CITY

The Salt Lake City promoters who are to finance the fight, are expected to decide on the town when they arrive here to confer with Johnson and Curley early next week.

MINOR LEAGUES WIN IN BATTLE FOR CLASSIFICATION

CINCINNATI, Jan. 4.—When the national baseball commission began today the second day of its annual meeting here it was the belief of the members that rapid progress would be made in clearing away unfinished business and that an adjournment would be taken some time today. The principal business before the commission was the raising of the American Association, the International League and the Pacific Coast League to a higher classification in the minors, the new ranking to be denominated as the "AAA" class.

RIVAL THIRD BASERS IN WORLD'S SERIES BEST OF PALS

It is a remarkable story how Baker and Herzog, the rival third sackers in the world's series, have always been associated since they were nothing more than big kids, writes Frederic Lieb in the Baseball Magazine. If the question was asked, "Who found this brilliant slugger and infielder, Baker?" the answer would be in 99 cases out of a hundred, Connie Mack. It is true, Connie took Frank when he was an uncultured and polished him into one of the most brilliant jewels on his star combination.

IRA THOMAS LUCKIEST BALL PLAYER IN THE GAME TODAY

It is a safe bet that if Ira Thomas of the Athletics left an aeroplane he would land "ker plunk" in a feather bed. That is because he picked up a and a good bosom pal. If Connie Mack was to let him come to the Browns next season, it's even money that Hedges' team would win the pennant.

BIG REFEREE IS OVERLOOKED IN DIXON-ROCHE MATCH

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 4.—An interesting situation has developed in connection with the boxing match scheduled here for tomorrow night between Tommy Dixon and Johnny Roche in that the matter of selecting a referee has been overlooked.

BRITISHERS FAIL TO SEE MUCH IN BASEBALL GAMES

Regarding the report that an American team of baseball players would visit England next year to give the Britishers an idea of how the Yankee game is played today, a well known London journalist, who has been in the States says: "The success of the venture, if it materializes, will depend largely on the British press. When the British press has been some years ago they were received as a curiosity, and the object of the visit—to interest Britishers in baseball—was mostly ignored. The fact that the game is played here at all."

BASEBALL HAS LITTLE STANDING AT YALE

What does this mean? Hasn't baseball any standing with football and rowing in our large universities? The Yale News reports that it has found out that football and rowing are the preferred sports at Harvard, Princeton and Yale.

PORTO CARLO, Venezuela, Jan. 4. The fourth and last section of the big steel floating dock which is under construction for the Venezuelan government by an American contractor was launched here successfully today.

PROGRESSIVE CELEBRATE

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 4.—With Louis D. Brandeis of Boston as the chief speaker of the day the Minnesota Progressive Republican League today celebrated the first anniversary of its founding. The celebration is considered also as the opening of the presidential campaign in Minnesota of Senator Robert M. La Follette.

JOHNNY FRANE, who will box Australian Charley Griffing before the West Oakland Club on January 12.

Matchmaker Levinson Signs These Two for January 12; Also More Boxers.

Matchmaker Sol Levinson of the West Oakland Athletic Club last night completed arrangements for the next card of the club and will stage a series of fights there a week from tomorrow night. The top-liner will be a ten-round bout between Johnny Frayne, the rapid fire Oakland lightweight, and Australian Charley Griffing.

On the face of it this looks like a rattling match. Frayne has a world of experience in the boxing game and in every bout in the ring has given a good account of himself. Some of his fights have been better than others, but the fans always overlook a little slipping on Frayne's part, for they well know he is always trying and that a gamer man never entered the arena.

Of Griffing the fans know very little in this part of the country. But Levinson, who is handling, has a knack of landing only the live ones, and if a fighter is of no account, Doc doesn't have him in his stable. In the east, Griffing has done well and has fought several of the best men there with success.

Several days ago, immediately after his arrival here, Griffing went out seeking a match and told Levinson that any man he picked at 132 pounds would be satisfactory. Frayne heard the news and along with Al White, his manager, immediately got on Griffing's trail. There was a good match and it is hoped that Griffing will show some of the things he has learned from his previous fights.

PUGILISTIC GAME UPSIDE DOWN.
As these columns yesterday said, Ed Petroskey does not care to hook up with Frank Klaus at the present time and neither does Fritz Holland, so the proposed match between one of these fellows and the Pittsburgher, that Moffitt was figuring on looks to be off.

Petroskey allows that he is still green in the game to the extent that he should not get into a fight with Klaus, and this is what Klaus is, Holland, on the other hand, is tied up with Mantell at Sacramento on the 19th and moreover, he is anxious to get on with Petroskey in a ten or twenty-round bout. These two have fought three times. Once Petroskey got the decision and on the other two occasions the bouts were called draws.

GEORGE BROWN GOING HOME.
George Brown, the Chicago scrapper who was going to show how middle weight scrapper fight and who blew up like a toy balloon, will not linger in our midst very long, and no one is sorry that he is going. The Greek is considering two offers to fight, one in Salt Lake and the other in Indianapolis. He had better take them for he has shot his bolt around this part of the grand old U. S. A.

For a time there, while he was training, the fans were counting on him as an opponent for Klaus and the Greek was telling of the wad of coin he had that Klaus couldn't stop him in ten rounds, and also how he could stop Klaus in twenty rounds. Since his decisive defeat in the hands of Petroskey Brown has been silent as a clam.

Eddie Campi has expressed a willingness to don the mitts with Johnny Burns, although he would prefer a ten-round mixup to one that goes twice that distance. The general opinion among the fans is to the effect that Campi would be tackling a tough proposition in sign up with the Chicago bantam weight.

PROFESSIONALISM NOT VERY STRONG WITH COLLEGE MEN

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—William Scott Bond of the University of Chicago alumni, made the statement last night that of 400 letters sent out to the athletes of the school regarding professionalism during their time in college 200 replies had been received.

BOSTON FANS PLEASED AT WAY DONLIN HIT BALL IN CUBA

Scrutiny of the scores of the New York Giants' games in Cuba brings joy to the heart of a Boston fan, for Mike Donlin was one of the athletes of this city who played in the Cuban team, and very consistent besides. If Johnny McGraw thinks he can make a deal for Mike, he should straightaway forget it. He would have to come across with something exceptional in the way of money, for there is no need of money on the Boston end. John M. Ward is out for a real ball team.

CARS IN CRASH; TWO ARE INJURED

Hayward Special Crashes Into San Leandro Vehicle at Switch.

A collision between two cars at East Fourteenth street and Twenty-third avenue occurred shortly after 6 o'clock last evening. San Leandro car No. 347, east bound, ran into an open switch and turned into Twenty-third avenue. While the car was at a standstill a Hayward special No. 271, also east bound, struck the open switch and crashed into the rear of the San Leandro car, demolishing the rear platform. The fender of the special was torn away.

The cars were both crowded, and it was with difficulty that the carmen held the passengers in check. Some rushed madly toward the door and would have jumped out had it not been for the carmen. Mrs. Herman Hertz, of 4100 Glenn avenue, was badly bruised, receiving several scratches about the face, and complained of internal injuries. She was taken to her home. Conductor Peterson was cut about the face and his knee was injured. There were other passengers who received minor injuries and it is unaccountable how so many escaped with out more serious consequences.

S. C. Flaherty, 3014 Redwood avenue, a passenger who was on the Hayward car, said that the air brakes were set on the San Leandro car and that it was moving slowly when the collision occurred.

FRENCH POST CARDS.
OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 4.—Heretofore Canadian postage stamps have been printed only in the English language. As under the constitution French is official, there is a pronounced agitation in official circles now to have the stamps printed in both English and French.

The pupils have registered in the book-keeping, shorthand, typing, commercial law, drawing, French, Spanish, German and English classes. F. E. Hughes is superintendent of the work and is directing the following corps of teachers:

Contestant Says He Is Not Satisfied With Conduct of Case.

The contest to set aside the probate of the will of the late Mary A. Pryal, begun yesterday before Superior Judge Wells, was continued until January 16 upon the showing of Charles L. Pryal, one of the contestants, that he was not satisfied with the manner in which the trial was being conducted. In a communication to the court Pryal represented that he had discharged his attorneys because of a disagreement on the question whether the contest should be tried before a jury or a judge alone, and for the further reason that he suspected his brother, James A. Pryal, who joined him and his sister in the contest of the will, had been won over by William A. Pryal, another brother, who is upholding the instrument.

Attorneys Snook & Church and Robinson & Robinson, were in the case and Charles A. Pryal represented to the court in his request for a continuance that Snook & Church were employed by James A. Pryal without his consent, and that the law firm is counsel for the Oakland and Antioch railway, with which William A. Pryal is associated and which has promised a position to James A. Pryal, he said. He objected to this and to a jury trial of the contest because of the expense.

"Falsely Accused" is a western photograph of great heart interest and startling action, which the Broadway Theater today is illustrating a happy New Year on the ranch. Bob is a petty thief and loves Helen, the rancher's daughter. She loves Harry, the foreman, and the couple elope and are married. Bob spies on them and in his jealous rage steals the payroll money, places part of it in Harry's coat pocket and puts the rest away in a secret hiding place behind the unused bar. He brings on accusation against Harry and a search reveals the lost money. At this critical moment he tells the ranchman about the elopement and in his anger the ranchman orders Harry and Helen away. More than a year elapses and Bob's stealings having amounted to a considerable sum, he plans to get away, and digs up the hoard. He is surprised by little Betty, Helen's sister. Alarmed, he catches her and carries her away and is intercepted by Harry. A thrilling battle takes place, in which Bob is shot and Harry carries the unconscious Betty to his cabin, where she is revived by Helen. She sees that Helen and Harry are in desperate financial straits and goes home and tells her story. Bob is caught as he has dragged himself to the old barn in an effort to get the money and is arrested. It is the day before New Year and the ranchman makes up for his unjust treatment by having the entire crowd go out to Harry's cabin with loads of good things to eat and a joyous banquet takes place.

BOGUS CHECK MAN GIVEN PROBATION

Pleadings of His Aged Mother
Gains Freedom for Frank Wyman.

Although Superior Judge William S. Wells regarded Frank A. Wyman as a third-grade risk, he admitted the prisoner to probation this forenoon for a period of five years, because his aged and decrepit mother needed his support. The court assumed the position that Wyman would reform and provide for his parent society would be served better than it would be by his commitment to the penitentiary. Wyman was before the court on a plea of guilty to the charge of passing a fictitious check. Probation Officer Ruess' report showed that Wyman's mother was 55 years of age and was divorced from her husband when the prisoner was a mere baby. Wyman has always lived at home with her, except on three occasions—once when he traveled for eight months with a bicycle trick rider in a vaudeville show, once when he fled from his company to get away from liquor, and once when he became a fugitive from justice after committing the crime that got him into his present predicament.

The second time he left home he went to Indiana. There was a mine explosion one town where he stopped and he joined the rescue gang that worked several days to get out entombed miners. While thus engaged a second explosion blew him about forty feet into the air and injured him severely. The probation officer informed the court that in his mind there was no doubt but that this harrowing experience increased Wyman's appetite for liquor.

DOUBTS SANITY OF TILDEN BOY

Mother Thinks Wound in Head
May Have Injured His Brain.

Douglas Tilden, nephew of the blind sculptor of that name, who is awaiting arraignment in the criminal department of the Superior Court on a charge of burglary, probably will be examined by a lunacy commission to determine his mental condition. When a small boy he was accidentally shot through the head with a load of buckshot, which resulted in paralysis of his right arm and leg, and his mother thinks also that his brain was affected. Upon this representation young Tilden's attorney obtained Judge William S. Wells' consent this forenoon to a continuance of the prisoner's case until next Monday morning for the arraignment, stating that in the interim he would consult with the District Attorney's office with a view to proceedings to determine the mental competency of his client.

The load of shot that entered Tilden's head was a full gun charge and but twenty-three of the pellets of lead were removed afterwards. At least a dozen more shot are believed to have remained in the skull and to have since been the means of destroying Tilden's sense of direction, thus causing the difference between right and wrong.

Tilden is at present accused with Thomas Fowler, who will be sentenced tomorrow morning for the part he took in the crime of robbing the home of H. B. Nichols at 201 Orange street. Fowler pleaded guilty last Tuesday and at the same time Attorney Edward E. Gehring got a continuance for Tilden. The lawyer withdrew from the case this morning in favor of Attorney Gano G. Kennedy, who is an old friend of the Tilden family.

WILL BE NO SOD BREAKING RITES

Contractors Start Work Monday at First Presbyterian Church Site.

Ground will probably be broken by the contractors next Monday morning, without any formal ceremony, for the foundation excavation of the new First Presbyterian church edifice on the Twenty-fourth street, Broadway and Faber street site. It was once planned to have a ground-breaking ceremony on New Year's day, but the idea was abandoned when the rain storm of the last week of the old year broke on the city.

The contractors are now so desirous of taking advantage of the fine weather to proceed with the excavation that the work will not be delayed a day, and the time is now to short to arrange a formal sod-breaking program.

Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. ## INSURANCE FUND TOTALS $388,544

Employees' Pension and Accident Law in Washington
a Success.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 4.—After three months' operation of the industrial insurance law the state workmen's compensation commission has on hand a total of $388,544. The total collections from 335 employers, against whom assessments were levied, amounted to $415,011, but claims aggregating $26,497 have been paid. The commissioners say that 100,000 workmen are protected by the state insurance.

So far it has not been necessary to make special assessments on any of the 47 classes included under the law, and all except class No. 46, powder works, show a balance on the right side. In the case of the powder works class the Dupont Powder company refused to pay its initial assessment, thus creating a temporary deficit.

The pensions to claimants have been allowed and payment will be made out of the funds on hand.

THEFT OF EVIDENCE BRANDED FRAME-UP

PORTLAND, Jan. 4.—That the burglars who entered the office of A. E. Clark, special prosecutor in the Oregon Trust Bank Case, in the Yeon building on New Year's night, the same night the office of District Attorney Cameron was robbed, operated from the inside and could not possibly have opened the door from the outside, is the statement of John B. Yeon, owner of the building. This opinion is confirmed by the watchman and others who have inspected the lock.

Yeon's statement, backed up by a demonstration of the workings of the lock, gives a new defense in the case of Louis J. Wilde that the burglary of Clark's office and the District Attorney's office as well, was a sham, planned and executed by those interested in damaging the standing of Wilde in the public mind.
